Bullet Voting Strategy

Bullet Voting is a strategy used when voters who could vote for multiple candidates actually vote only for the candidates whom they most want to see among the winners.

A bullet vote is when a person votes for fewer candidates, even if they are allowed to vote for more. This type of vote can have a bigger impact on the outcome of an election. For example, if there are three candidates and a person only votes for one, that candidate has a better chance of winning because they have one more vote than the other two candidates.

Sample Ballot Key

In the box below, Recommended Candidates are emboldened with the circle filled in; candidates to oppose are not emboldened and the circle is left blank.

- MARY SMITH -- (Recommended)
- MIKE BEEMER -- (NOT Recommended)
- Jane Smith* -- (write-in candidate – where occurs)
